A "Little" Twisted Life

Luke 19:1-9

Twisted Profession

Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through. A man was there by the name of Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was wealthy.

v. 1-2

Twisted Profession

Chief Tax Collector

He was Wealthy

A Twisted Idea

He wanted to see who Jesus was, but because he was short he could not see over the crowd. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore-fig tree to see him, since Jesus was coming that way.

v. 3-4

A Twisted Idea

Something was still missing from Zacchaeus' life

He's heard about Jesus

Jesus is coming to his hometown

Zacchaeus can't buy his way close

But he wants to at least see what Jesus is all about

So he overcomes
the fact he is vertically challenged and climbs a tree

A Twisted Response

When Jesus reached the spot, he looked up and said to him, “Zacchaeus, come down immediately. I must stay at your house today.” So he came down at once and welcomed him gladly.

v. 5-6

A Twisted Response

Jesus sees Zacchaeus in a tree

He could have just ignored him

He could have laughed at him

He could have scolded him

He chose to relate to him

A Twisted Prospective

All the people saw this and began to mutter, “He has gone to be the guest of a sinner.”

v. 7

Living in a Twisted World

In but NOT of

“Do not love the world or anything in the world. If anyone loves the world, love for the Father is not in them.”

John 2:15

What I mean, brothers and sisters, is that the time is short. From now on those who have wives should live as if they do not; those who mourn, as if they did not; those who are happy, as if they were not; those who buy something, as if it were not theirs to keep; those who use the things of the world, as if not engrossed in them. For this world in its present form is passing away.
