

A graphic illustration of water splashing. The water is depicted in shades of blue and white, with a dynamic, splashing motion. The word "WATER" is written in large, red, bubbly, 3D-style letters across the center of the splash. The background is a gradient from light blue to white, suggesting a bright, sunny day. The overall style is clean and modern, typical of a logo or title for a water-related brand or organization.

JESUS UNDERSTOOD THE NEED

When a Samaritan woman came to draw water, Jesus said to her, “Will you give me a drink?” (His disciples had gone into the town to buy food.) The Samaritan woman said to him, “You are a Jew and I am a Samaritan woman. How can you ask me for a drink?” (For Jews do not associate with Samaritans.) Jesus answered her, “If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water.”

John 4:7-10

JESUS UNDERSTOOD THE NEED

This woman obviously understood the need for water

But this women had a bigger need

This woman was unsatisfied with her life

LIVING WATER

A dramatic, high-contrast image of a large wave crashing, with the text "ISAIAH 55:1-3" overlaid in a bold, red, 3D font. The background is a mix of deep blue and white, suggesting a powerful ocean wave. The text is centered and has a glowing effect.

ISAIAH 55:1-3

HE WAS OFFERING A RELATIONSHIP

On the last and greatest day of the festival, Jesus stood and said in a loud voice, “Let anyone who is thirsty come to me and drink. whoever believes in me, as Scripture has said, rivers of living water will flow from within them.” By this he meant the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were later to receive. Up to that time the Spirit had not been given, since Jesus had not yet been glorified.

John 7:37-39

WE HAVE TO COME

WE HAVE TO DRINK

WE HAVE TO BELIEVE

WE HAVE TO RECEIEVE
