Week 1: Bob is almost late for his own wedding while trying to do one more thing

Week 3: Bob was the one making the bad decisions to try to relive his glory days

Week 4: Bob was pictured as the disinterested and distracted dad

Bad Dad

Week 6: Bob is the one at the table unable to give his kids good direction

Week 7: The Villain Bob was dealing with was created by his past life

Week 8: Bob is cracking under the pressure of being a dad

Teaching Moment

Guys while it's not all on you, your family will only be solid as you are committed to them!

Moms as incredible as they are, are not designed to do it alone

Your family is counting on you

Yes that is a lot of pressure

Job 1:1-3

In the land of Uz there lived a man whose name was Job. This man was blameless and upright; he feared God and shunned evil. He had seven sons and three daughters, and he owned seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen and five hundred donkeys, and had a large number of servants. He was the greatest man among all the people of the East.

Defining Mr. Incredible

He was just a man

He was an incredibly good man:

This man was blameless and upright

He was an incredibly committed married man

He was an incredibly respected man in his community

He was an incredibly godly man:

He feared God and shunned evil

Incredible Dad

7 sons and 3 daughters

Job 1:4-5

His sons used to hold feasts in their homes on their birthdays, and they would invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them. When a period of feasting had run its course, Job would make arrangements for them to be purified. Early in the morning he would sacrifice a burnt offering for each of them, thinking, “Perhaps my children have sinned and cursed God in their hearts.” This was Job’s regular custom.

Incredible Dad

Job's kids are all grown

Job loved his children

Job must have done something right because all his kids were still speaking to each other

He was concerned about his kid's spiritual condition

“Perhaps my children have sinned and cursed God in their hearts.”

Incredible Dad

He took the spiritual leadership of his family: Job would make arrangements for them to be purified. Early in the morning he would sacrifice a burnt offering for each of them

Meltdown Moment

While he was still speaking, yet another messenger came and said, “Your sons and daughters were feasting and drinking wine at the oldest brother’s house, when suddenly a mighty wind swept in from the desert and struck the four corners of the house. It collapsed on them, and they are dead, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!”

Job 1:18-19

Incredible Response

At this, Job got up and tore his robe and shaved his head. Then he fell to the ground in worship and said: “Naked I came from my mother’s womb, and naked I will depart. The Lord gave and the Lord has taken away; may the name of the Lord be praised.” In all this, Job did not sin by charging God with wrongdoing.

Job 1:20-22
