

“In the Beginning
was the Word...”

The image features a dark, starry night sky as a background. A bright star with a four-pointed lens flare is positioned at the top center. Below the text, a manger filled with golden straw is visible, resting on a dark surface. The overall scene is dimly lit, with the primary light source being the star.

The WORD
Became FLESH

He had to be

Matthew 1:18-24

He was their Savior

Luke 2:8-16

He is the King

Matthew 2:1-12

He Offered His Flesh and Blood

And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to death—even death on a cross!

Philippians 2:8

In Remembrance

While they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, “Take it; this is my body.” Then he took a cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and they all drank from it. “This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many”

Mark 14:22-24

The Nat Sa Silent Night

*The Nat Sa
Silent Night*

The Lights went Out!

It was now about noon, and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon, for the sun stopped shining. And the curtain of the temple was torn in two. Jesus called out with a loud voice, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit." When he had said this, he breathed his last.

Luke 23:44-46

The Lights went Out!

He gave his life on the cross

Was placed in a tomb

On the third day he rose

He stayed here on earth for 40 days

And then he ascended into heaven and we are awaiting his return

But the story of God in flesh is not over

The Lights to the World

When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them.

Acts 2:1-4

The Lights to the World

“You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden. Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead, they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house.

In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.

Matthew 5:14-16
